Sir:

Petitioners' attorney respectfully petitions the Commissioner for Patents to revive the above-identified application under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) on the ground that the delay in taking required further action was completely unintentional.

This Petition is being filed in response to a second Decision on Petition (Paper No. 10) which dismissed a renewed Petition. The latter was filed in response to a first Decision on Petition (Paper No. 8), which dismissed an original Petition for Withdrawal of the Holding of Abandonment.

The preparation and filing of the renewed Petition was based on the undersigned's understanding from page 2 of the first Decision on Petition (Paper No. 8) that item (3) only needed an explicit statement, explaining the delay in filing the original Petition. The undersigned inadvertently failed to consider the suggestions made on page 4 of the first Decision on Petition, that the Petitioner supply a copy of the file jacket, conduct the required searches, and state that they were not successful, and submit an acceptable docket report. In fact, the undersigned had performed a database search for the serial number and the docket number assigned to the subject patent application and, indeed, they were not successful in revealing the receipt of any Office Action. In addition, a careful search of the file jacket at issue, as well as the office of the undersigned and his assistance's office, did not reveal the missing Notice to File Missing Parts nor did it reveal any "loose" Office Actions, that is ones which have not been paired with a file jacket.

The undersigned submits that the failure to provide the suggested copies of the entire docket and the file jacket was not intentional but rather an inadvertent oversight by the undersigned. Indeed, the renewed Petition (responding to the first Decision on Petition) was filed on March 9, 2004, less than a week after having actually received the first Decision on Petition (see copy of Paper No 8 with a stamp dated March 3, 2003 of entry into a database of the undersigned firm). This response to the first Decision on Petition was not in the spirit of intentionally delaying prosecution.

Despite having gained this valuable experience with the filing of a Petition to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment for Unavoidable Delay, the undersigned believes that the most expeditious way to hasten further prosecution in this matter is the filing of this present Petition to Revive for Unintentional Abandonment.

The petition fee of $1,330.00 is enclosed herewith. Please charge any additional fees or credit any overpayment to our Deposit Account No. 02-2666.

Respectfully submitted,

Radek Grzeszczuk et al.
Application No. 10/028,414
Filed: December 21, 2001
Attorney Docket No.: 42390.P13155
Title: SURFACE LIGHT FIELD
DECOMPOSITION USING NON-
NEGATIVE FACTORIZATION

DECISION ON PETITION
UNDER 37 C.F.R. §1.137(A)

This is a decision on the petition filed January 20, 2004, under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a)¹, to revive the above-identified application.

The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to reply in a timely manner to the Notice of Missing Parts (notice²), mailed January 28, 2002, which set a shortened statutory period for reply of two (2) months. No response was received, and no extensions of time under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. §1.136(a) were requested. Accordingly, the above-identified application became abandoned on March 29, 2002. A Notice of Abandonment was mailed on November 24, 2003.

With the instant petition, Petitioner has supplied a declaration, along with a statement of facts which asserts that the notice was never received, along with a copy of the "docket" in order to show that the correspondence was not received. It is noted that the Petitioner is not of record.

1 A grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a) must be accompanied by:

- (1) The reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed;
- (2) The petition fee as set forth in § 1.17(l);
- (3) A showing to the Commissioner that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition was unavoidable;
- (4) Any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in § 1.20(d)) required pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

2 The notice required an executed oath or declaration, along with the surcharge associated with the late filing of an oath or declaration and substitute drawings.

The instant petition lacks item (3) above.

As to item (3), the showing of record is not sufficient to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the delay was unavoidable within the meaning of 37 CFR 1.137(a).

The Commissioner is responsible for determining the standard for unavoidable delay and for applying that standard.

"In the specialized field of patent law, . . . the Commissioner of Patent and Trademarks is primarily responsible for the application and enforcement of the various narrow and technical statutory and regulatory provisions. The Commissioner's interpretation of those provisions is entitled to considerable deference."³

"[T]he Commissioner's discretion cannot remain wholly uncontrolled, if the facts clearly demonstrate that the applicant's delay in prosecuting the application was unavoidable, and that the Commissioner's adverse determination lacked any basis in reason or common sense."⁴

"The court's review of a Commissioner's decision is 'limited, however, to a determination of whether the agency finding was arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with the law.'"⁵

"The scope of review under the arbitrary and capricious standard is narrow and a court is not to substitute its judgment for that of the agency."⁶

The standard

"[T]he question of whether an applicant's delay in prosecuting an application was unavoidable must be decided on a case-by-case basis, taking all of the facts and circumstances into account."⁷

The general question asked by the Office is: "Did petitioner act as a reasonable and prudent person in relation to his most important business?"⁸

Nonawareness of a PTO rule will not constitute unavoidable delay.⁹ The burden of showing the cause of the delay is on the person seeking to revive the application.¹⁰

A delay caused by an applicant's lack of knowledge or improper application of the patent statute, rules of practice, or the MPEP is not rendered "unavoidable" due to either the applicant's reliance upon oral advice from USPTO employees or the USPTO's failure to advise the applicant to take corrective action.¹¹

The portion of the MPEP relevant to the abandonment of this application

MPEP 711.03(c) states, in part:

PETITION TO WITHDRAW HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT BASED ON FAILURE TO RECEIVE OFFICE ACTION

In Delgar v. Schulyer, 172 USPQ 513 (D.D.C. 1971), the court decided that the Office should mail a new Notice of Allowance in view of the evidence presented in support of the contention that the applicant's representative did not receive the original Notice of Allowance. Under the reasoning of Delgar, an allegation that an Office action was never received may be considered in a petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment. If adequately supported, the Office may grant the petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment and remail the Office action. That is, the reasoning of Delgar is applicable regardless of whether an application is held abandoned for failure to timely pay the issue fee (35 U.S.C. 151) or for failure to prosecute (35 U.S.C. 133).

To minimize costs and burdens to practitioners and the Office, the Office has modified the showing required to establish nonreceipt of an Office action. The showing required to establish nonreceipt of an Office communication must include a statement from the practitioner stating that the Office communication was not received by the practitioner and attesting to the fact that a search of the file jacket and docket records indicates that the Office communication was not received. A copy of the docket record where the nonreceived Office communication would have been entered had it been received and docketed must be attached to and referenced in practitioner's statement. For example, if a three month period for reply was set in the nonreceived Office action, a copy of the docket report showing all replies docketed for a date three months from the mail date of the nonreceived Office action must be submitted as documentary proof of nonreceipt of the Office action. See Notice entitled "Withdrawing the Holding of Abandonment When Office Actions Are Not Received," 1156 O.G. 53 (November 16, 1993).

The showing outlined above may not be sufficient if there are circumstances that point to a conclusion that the Office action may have been lost after receipt rather than a conclusion that the Office action was lost in the mail (e.g., if the practitioner has a history of not receiving Office actions).

Evidence of nonreceipt of an Office communication or action (e.g., Notice of Abandonment or an advisory action) other than that action to which reply was required to avoid abandonment would not warrant withdrawal of the holding of abandonment. Abandonment takes place by operation of law for failure to reply to an Office action or timely pay the issue fee, not by operation of the mailing of a Notice of Abandonment. See Lorenz v. Finkl, 333 F.2d 885, 889-90, 142 USPQ 26, 29-30 (CCPA 1964); Krahn v. Commissioner, 15 USPQ2d 1823, 1824 (E.D. Va 1990); In re Application of Fischer, 6 USPQ2d 1573, 1574 (Comm'r Pat. 1988).

Two additional procedures are available for reviving an application that has become abandoned due to a failure to reply to an Office Action: (1) a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a) based upon unavoidable delay; and (2) a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) based on unintentional delay.

⁹ See Smith v. Mossinghoff, 671 F.2d 533, 538, 213 U.S.P.Q. (BNA) 977 (Fed. Cir. 1982) (citing Potter v. Dann, 201 U.S.P.Q. (BNA) 574 (D.D.C. 1978) for the proposition that counsel's nonawareness of PTO rules does not constitute "unavoidable" delay)). Although court decisions have only addressed the issue of lack of knowledge of an attorney, there is no reason to expect a different result due to lack of knowledge on the part of a pro se (one who prosecutes on his own) applicant. It would be inequitable for a court to determine that a client who spends his hard earned money on an attorney who happens not to know a specific rule should be held to a higher standard than a pro se applicant who makes (or is forced to make) the decision to file the application without the assistance of counsel.

Application of the standard to the current facts and circumstances

In the instant petition, petitioner maintains that the circumstances that led to the abandonment of the application meet the aforementioned unavoidable standard and, therefore; petitioner qualifies for relief under 37 CFR 1.137(a). Petitioner explains that all incoming mail is sorted by the docketing department, and then routed to the attorney responsible for the file.

The printout petitioner has supplied fails to establish non-receipt of an Office communication, in that it has not been accompanied by an attestation to the fact that a search of the file, the file jacket and docket records indicates that the Office communication was not received.

Furthermore, no copy of the file jacket has been supplied.

Additionally, the printouts do not serve as a copy of the docket record where the non-received Office communication would have been entered had it been received and docketed. The printouts supplied all pertain to a particular client; client number "42390," the Intel Corporation. A docket report is a mail log, recorded by the person who receives all incoming mail. A docket report should show all incoming mail received during the relevant time period. As the printout merely concerns the files of a particular client, it fails to show the correspondence at issue was not received and merely misplaced and filed with another file or mislabeled so as to be associated with the wrong client.

On the facts presented, this situation fails to constitute unavoidable delay. These facts might constitute an unintentional delay in prosecution, but it certainly does not rise to the level of unavoidable.

Therefore, it is determined that the petitioner cannot establish that the entire delay in filing the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR §1.137(a) was unavoidable which is required in order for relief to be granted under 37 CFR §1.137(a).

As such, the petition is DISMISSED. ✓

✓ Any request for reconsideration or petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) must be submitted within TWO (2) MONTHS from the mail date of this decision. Extension of time under 37 CFR 1.136(a) are permitted. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition Under 37 CFR 1.137(a) (or §1.137(b), if applicable)". This is not a final agency action within the meaning of 5 U.S.C 704.

On renewed petition, Petitioner may wish to consider supplying a copy of the file jacket, conducting the required searches and stating that they were not successful, and submitting an acceptable docket report.

Petitioner may wish to consider filing a petition to revive based on unintentional abandonment under 37 CFR 1.137(b)¹².

12 A grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) must be accompanied by:

- (1) The reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed;
- (2) The petition fee as set forth in § 1.17(m);
- (3) A statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to this paragraph was unintentional. The Commissioner may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional, and;
- (4) Any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in § 1.20(d)) required pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

- The reply to this letter may be submitted by mail¹³, hand-delivery¹⁴, or facsimile¹⁵.

As petitioner has asserted that the notice of January 28, 2002 was not received, a copy has been provided.

A copy of the notice of January 28, 2002 has been enclosed.

The application file will be retained in the Office of Petitions for two (2) months.

Telephone inquiries regarding this decision should be directed to the undersigned at (703) 305-0011.
